Our view of the child

„Be cheeky, wild and wonderful!"
Pippi Longstocking

We accept you just as you are and treat you with kindness and genuine understanding.

We'll accompany you for a while on your journey and see ourselves as 'treasure hunters' on your very own journey of discovery.

We recognise your curiosity, your enthusiasm, your worries and fears, and we take these on board.

We'll give you the space and time you need to settle into nursery life at your own pace.

We want to be role models for you, offer you guidance and provide you with a structured, reliable environment.

You're welcome to be yourself here, with all your strengths and weaknesses!

„There's no other age when everything is as intensely as in childhood.
We grown-ups should remember what that was like."
Astrid Lindgren

We aim to:

- Strengthen families: Family and social relationships, as well as family life and everyday family routines, should be something people can experience and feel.
- Support families: Help, provide advice and care for the whole family
- Empower families: Providing a comprehensive range of educational programmes to develop parenting skills, as well as information on health, exercise and nutrition
- Give families a space: A space where families can spend time together, where education and counselling take place, where children are welcome and can be looked after, and where communication, exchange and mutual support can be experienced.

What we offer parents and families:

- plusKITA programmes
- Parenting and family education programmes / parent-child activities
- Family breakfast / family café
- Language café / Rucksack project
- Occupational therapy and/or speech and language therapy (consultations and therapy on our premises)
